A new Summer School exploring the Church's teaching on marriage is coming to Tasmania

A new Summer School exploring the Church's teaching on marriage is coming to Tasmania

In January 2019, the inaugural Matrimonium Summer School will take place in Hobart. At a time when so much of the Church's teaching on marriage and the family is contested by the secular culture, it is important that young Catholics take this opportunity to go deeper in their understanding of these key teachings. The program will provide an opportunity for participants to be engaged at the level of the head and the heart. This deeper knowledge will give you the confidence and knowledge to be an effective Christian witness in our society. It will also help prepare you for whatever vocation that you believe you are called to.

The Summer School Faculty includes:

- Professor Tracey Rowland (Notre Dame)
- Dr Kevin Donnelly AM (ACU)
- Peter Holmes MTh (Notre Dame)
- Anna Krohn (Anima Women's Network)

The Summer School program includes a range of lectures, discussions, Holy Mass, other prayer times, excursions to places of natural and historical significance, as well as free time for reflection and social outings.

The Summer School will take place at a venue on the doorstep of Wellington Park, the home of the Wellington Range. The venue is also very close to the centre of Hobart and a historic convict site. Hobart's unique combination of natural beauty, sites of historical significance and Gothic Revival inspired sacred architecture has been integrated into the Summer School program.

This integration is summed up by the famous sculpture known as The Cathedral by Rodin. This sculpture depicts the beauty of the complementarity of male and female and the space between the two hands is seen as a parallel for the mysterious inner space that is realised in the composition of Gothic architecture.
